Paradise Chocolate Fest Queen & King Candidates Raise FUNDS & FUN

The 2015 Paradise Chocolate Fest will be more exciting than ever as this “deliciously indulgent” event “Celebrates 10 Years of Sweetening Kids Lives thru Chocolate!”. One of the highlights of the Fest is the coronation of the Chocolate Fest Queen and King, held center stage at Noon on Fest day, Saturday, May 9th.

Sporting custom-created chocolate themed hats, candidates officially “kicked- off” their annual quest for the crown on the first of February and the race is on!

Chocolate Fest Queen and King Candidates host a variety of fund raisers – from madcap or silly to elegant and grand, contenders compete to raise “votes”. Each dollar raised by candidates equals one vote. The candidates with the most votes will be honored as this year’s Queen and King.

This year’s candidates are Dylan Dutro, sponsored by Darlene’s Fine Chocolates & Ice Cream, Caitlyn Hardiman, sponsored by Rabobank, Patty McKee, sponsored by Century 21 Select Real Estate, Dina McSpadden, sponsored by Rotary Club of Paradise & Chuck Rough, sponsored by Joy Lyn’s Candies.

The “real winners” of the Paradise Chocolate Fest are non-profit groups that provide educational, enrichment, recreational and leadership opportunities to youth on the Paradise Ridge. This year, twenty organizations will share the sweet rewards of the Fest. These vital funds support music and academic programs, computer labs, provide scholarships to summer camp and dance classes, youth leadership training, sports equipment, and much, much more.

2015 Beneficiaries include - Achieve Charter School, Boy Scouts Troops #316 & #770, Cub Scouts Pack 316, Evergreen 6 Academy, Girl Scouts, Gold Nugget Museum, Heart Shine Foundation, Paradise Dancers, Paradise Elementary School Chorus, Paradise Friends of the Library, Paradise Piranhas Swim Team, PHS Cross Country, PHS Girls Basketball, PHS Musical Production, Paradise Youth Soccer, Rainbow Girls, Simple Gesture, Strings In School and Youth for Change.
