Since 2006, the Paradise Chocolate Fest has proudly distributed more than $420,000 to non-profit organizations that support youth on the Paradise Ridge. These funds have helped provide vital educational, enrichment, recreation, and leadership opportunities for local young people. This year, seventeen youth-focused organizations will receive funding. Their programs include music and academic enrichment, summer camp and dance scholarships, youth leadership training, sports equipment, food bank support, vision screenings, updated technology, and much more.
